JEDA Annual Report

Since its creation in 1983, JEDA has issued 446 bonds
representing more than $8.1 billion in investment, resulting with the creation and retention of more than 213,000 jobs in the Palmetto State.

Celebrating 30 Years of Economic Growth, Development and Progress in South Carolina

As the South Carolina Jobs-Economic Development Authority (JEDA) marks its 30th Anniversary, we reflect on the positive role our agency has played in helping South Carolina achieve increased prosperity, economic advancement and job growth. JEDA is pleased to be a contributing and dynamic partner to healthcare facilities, education and non-profit organizations, small manufacturers and solid waste disposal facilities as they navigate the challenges of an ever-changing financial landscape.

Efforts to Preserve Tax Exempt Bonds

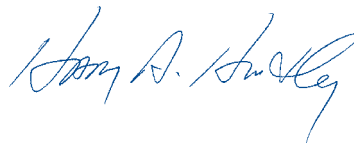

As a member of several national associations, JEDA has joined the advocacy efforts through letters and formal comments to state and federal legislators, and supports legislation to ensure the preservation of the tax-exempt bond program, comprehensive reform to modernize outdated rules and regulations governing these bonds and to improve tax policy. Tax-exempt bonds are the single most actively used bond tool for financing the expansion of eligible businesses and the creation of jobs by providing access to capital markets at reduced interest rates, and is a key economic development tool for JEDA. JEDA fulfills its mission by providing qualifying borrowers means to access tax-exempt and taxable bonds to finance their projects, which require no endorsements or guarantees of the State of South Carolina. JEDA is totally self-supportive and operates for the benefit of the State and citizens of South Carolina at no cost to the taxpayers.

Forward Thinking

As the economy continues to show increased improvement throughout the State and across all market segments, JEDA and its Board of Directors continue to evaluate new programs in support of its mission, while broadening the scope of services offered. In addition to being accomplished and civic-minded entrepreneurs, the Directors of JEDA bring the vision and skill sets from real estate development, manufacturing, agriculture, sales, financial and legal fields. The combination of these skills are blended and contribute to the ongoing development and expansion of strategic plans as we look toward the future and the continued prosperity and expansion of South Carolina businesses through the issue of tax-exempt and taxable bonds.

$184.8 Million

SC JEDA Tax-Exempt Industrial Revenue Bond | Refinancing for improvements, renovations and equipment | Greenville, SC — Greenville County | Bond Counsel — Amy Curran, Jones Day — Chicago, IL

Bon Secours St. Francis Health System leveraged $184.8 million in low-interest, tax-exempt financing through JEDA to help St. Francis facilities cut costs and retain 3,685 jobs while also improving healthcare in the Upstate.

Proceeds from the Series 2013 revenue bond issue refunded prior bonds which were used to defray the cost of improvements, renovations and equipment at the System's St. Francis facilities in Greenville, which includes the 245-bed St. Francis downtown (formerly St. Francis Hospital) and the 93-bed St. Francis eastside (formerly St. Francis Women's and Family Hospital).

"Financing such as that secured through JEDA helps us in our mission of continuing to meet the changing medical needs of the communities we serve."

$14.3 Million

SC JEDA Revenue Refunding Bond | Refinancing for acquisition, construction, furnishing and equipping facilities | Irmo, SC — Richland County | Bond Counsel — Mitchell Johnson, Haynsworth Sinkler Boyd, PA — Charleston, SC

Lutheran Homes of South Carolina, Inc. worked with JEDA to refinance older debt and free more money for its core mission of serving the aging population in the Palmetto State.

Irmo-based Lutheran Homes closed on a $14.3 million revenue refunding bond that refunded a portion of the Series 1998 bonds which enabled the acquisition, construction, furnishing and equipping of continuing care facilities across the state.

“Across the state, we now offer a comprehensive care continuum, including in-home supportive services, independent and active lifestyle communities, memory care, in and outpatient rehabilitation programs, assisted living and skilled nursing care centers, and hospice care. Lowering our financing costs helps us allocate more money towards our important work.”

$16 Million

SC JEDA Tax-Exempt Industrial Revenue Bond | Finance a new primary care center | Greenville, SC — Greenville County | Bond Counsel — Kathy McKinney, Haynsworth Sinkler Boyd, PA — Greenville, SC

New Horizon Family Health Services, Inc. (New Horizon) is using $16 million in tax-exempt JEDA economic development revenue bonds to build a new 64,000-square-foot facility to offer access to quality, affordable healthcare to the medically underserved people in Greenville County.

This expansion project, which will help retain 170 existing jobs and create 48 new positions within two years of its completion, is a reflection of the great community partnerships between New Horizon Family Health Services, JEDA, Greenville Health System, and Wells Fargo.

“The time has come to expand our ability to accommodate the community’s increasing need for medical services and for more people to have a medical home. JEDA bond funding makes a project of this magnitude more feasible than it otherwise might be.”
