Presta

End-to-end lending software for commercial and small business lenders

The inspiration for Presta stems from our experience building tech to increase access to capital.

Leopoldo Peña, CEO leo@letspresta.com

Peter Truog, COO peter@letspresta.com

Presta's lending platform helps lenders accelerate their lending process and reach more borrowers.

Product Overview

In over 70 conversations with lenders, they have shared that they:

- Rely on disjointed software tools that don't talk to each other and slow down their process
- Have outgrown their paper-based, manual processes
- Spend too much time on data consolidation and personalized data analysis during underwriting

- Lack a central location to share borrower relationship history with their team members
- Struggle to collect documents from borrowers and other stakeholders
- Rely on expensive 3rd party legal providers to fill out closing contract templates

These learnings directly inform the development and vision for Presta
